

CITY TAXES

Whilst most taxes (government) are generally included in our room rates, there are a few exceptions to this rule, as mentioned in our terms and conditions. These exceptions are detailed below, in the form of local/city/tourist taxes. We are unable to include these taxes in our rates and all passengers must pay these locally directly to the hotel.

The information provided below is for guidance only. Whilst every attempt will be made to reflect the actual charges that will be made locally, B&A cannot be held responsible for the accuracy of this information.

The below tables cover the main city destinations but not all local taxes applied in cities worldwide. We caution the agents to always cross-referenace this information, as well as research if local taxes apply in destinations that are not mentioned in the present document.
